

Council-SCE Reaching Harmony On Pole Crisis

The Upland City Council's desire to put an end to the indiscriminate placing of utility poles throughout the city came closer to fruition this week when Councilmen James Christensen and Ronald Rossitter met with the utility advisory committee and representatives of the Edison Company and General Telephone Company.

Their meeting followed the City Council's first reading of a new ordinance which sets definite regulations and procedures for the removal of overhead utility facilities and the installation of underground facilities in designated utility districts.

The concern over the possibility of the city becoming a maze of utility poles was sparked by an announcement by the Edison Co. that it plans to build a substation at 16th Street and Campus Avenue. Edison first proposed running high tension lines down the wash in Memorial Park to avoid running them along Foothill Boulevard.

When the council rejected these plans, the Edison Company agreed to run the lines down Campus and along 16th Street. The council objected to this plan also, and set out to establish more absolute requirements whereas the utility companies involved would have to underground the wires wherever feasible.

Rossitter and Christensen have been adamant with the utility companies, and last Wednesday morning they argued the city's stand for more than an hour, with the following results.

The Edison Company has accepted a tentative plan whereby they would in the future submit all plans for the installation of utility poles to the Upland Planning and Engineering Departments for approval. These departments would then approve or disapprove the proposed plans and if necessary work with the utility companies to draw up plans acceptable to both the city and the utility company.

Of particular note was a proposed program involving a study of costs to underground existing utilities for the entire Civic Center, and those utilities along Arrow, between Euclid and Second Avenue.

The Public Utilities Commission provides the city with 2% of the utility firm's yearly gross to be put into undergrounding projects. This money could be allotted for the Civic Center project if it would cover the cost.

The new ordinance being considered by the council will govern more tightly the placement of poles and act as a deterrent to the Edison Company's stringing poles and wires throughout the city, without the approval of the City Council.

The next meeting of the Utility Advisory Board will be held in September.

Chief Wessely Has Mumps, Officers, Lions Exposed

It's no rumor . . . Police Chief John Wessely really has the mumps (on both sides) and he's feeling pretty bad.

A sore throat was the first indication of his illness, according to the Chief. He wasn't feeling good for a few days, and last Thursday, Aug. 8, the day he went to the Lions luncheon, he was really feeling low. Friday, his doctor, confirmed the diagnosis. . . "Mumps."

That means . . . in about three weeks . . . the incubation period for mumps. . . we might find a few sick little Lions and perhaps the ranks of the local law enforcement agency will show a high incidence of illness.

Chief Wessely plans to be back at his post, this coming Monday, as his doctor told him the illness runs its course in from 7 to 10 days.

The Chief said this week that he would be interested in catching the culprit who gave him the lumps . . .

Entire City Council Jim's Co-Chairman

Keith Hubbs, General Chairman of the Christensen for Assembly Campaign in the 72nd A.D. announced today the formation of the Upland Citizens for Christensen Committee. Named by Hubbs as Co-Chairman of the Committee are Mayor George Gibson, Councilmen Mike Rossitter and A.M. Hawkins, Jr., Councilwoman Zella Stone, and City Clerk Dee Carpenter.

The five Co-Chairmen have named Councilman Mike Rossitter as their spokesman. Rossitter served as Upland campaign chairman in 1966 for Christensen's Democrat opponent, Assemblyman John Quimby. Rossitter was quoted as saying, "I have served on the Upland City Council with Jim Christensen for four years. Jim has shown a wealth of legislative skill and leadership during that time. He is eminently qualified to serve the 72nd District in Sacramento. Those of us who know and work with him urge all the voters of the 72nd District to vote for Jim Christensen on November 5th.

Christensen, when informed of the Committee's formation, said, "It makes me very proud to get such a vote of confidence from my colleagues on the City Council and from Dee Carpenter, our City Clerk. I will do everything possible during this campaign to live up to the committee's confidence in me."

5-Acre 'Green Belt' Slated Near Cable

By Rosamond Douglas

A five acre wide "Green Belt" buffer zone located approximately two lots east of Benson, between 13th and 15th, was proposed by Councilman, Ronald Rossitter at last week's meeting of the city council.

The belt would serve to separate land uses along Benson, where controversy between Dewey Cable, owner of Cable Airport and the council has been a key issue for some time. Cable seeks rezoning on the land east of Benson from Agricultural to light industrial.

Residents in the A-1 zoned area west of Benson have objected to light industry being brought into the area. The buffer zone would serve two purposes, namely to screen the residential area from the possibility of a light industry area and also to provide a clear area for runway approaches to the airport.

Elwin Alder, city manager, was directed Monday evening, to investigate the possibility of the city securing the land in question. One parcel of land is already owned by the city. Two parcels would have to be purchased and the other parcel might be acquired by exchange. A $60,000 appropriation would be needed to complete the project. The buffer zone would be landscaped and could be used for a park.

The City Manager upon completion of his investigation will present his findings with the possibility of a public hearing to be set at a future date.

Deadline For Book Reports, Aug. 15

The Upland Public Library has been "the" place this summer for reading buffs. The Summer Reading Program, "Exploring Trails", has been in full swing, with youngsters reading 10 books to qualify for a certificate of merit.

Three hundred and eighty-three children have been following the program -- mapping their course on individual maps of San Bernardino County with a picture of a Road Runner.

Children are warned that the last day they can turn in reports is August 15th.

All children having 10 Road Runners on their map are invited to a special program to be held at the Methodist Church on C St. and First Ave. on Wednesday, August 21st at 10 a.m.

The entertainment will be a surprise offering; at its conclusion the certificates will be given out to the qualifying children.

A Forced Landing ..But Safe One

UPLAND -- It wasn't a "particularly graceful landing," but it was a safe one and that's what counted for Dave and Ginger Alger of Upland, Friday night.

Thirty-year old Dave Alger of 660 Wedgewood St., made a good one Friday night when the power failed in his light plane and he was forced down just short of Cable Airport.

Neither he nor his wife, Ginger, were injured.

The Federal Aviation Agency Cable Airport officials and Upland Police are investigating the cause of the crash.

Alger reported only that his plane had a "power out" and he made a short landing.

Upland Police Capt. Fred Stroste and Officer Gerald Emerson said they measured 33 feet of "gauge marks" where the plane had skidded to a stop near 14th Street and Benson Avenue at about 8:12 p.m.

The front nose wheel of the Cherokee 140 was broken off and the prop was bent, they said.

It was the second minor air crash in two days in the West End.

A converted B17 crash landed at Chino Airport Thursday after one of its wheels failed to lock in the "down" position. Pilot Larry Hill brought it in safely. Neither he nor co-pilot Dave Bleasdel were injured.

Scorned Woman .. Turns Loose

Upland police officers responded to a call for assistance this past week found a young man who was attempting to sever his relationship with a young girl with whom he had been associating with for approximately six months.

It appeared, though, that the young lady had different ideas and wanted to maintain and continue the relationship.

Upon the officers' arrival they had to physically restrain the young lady in order to keep her from inflicting further abuse on the body of her young companion. Moral of the story: "Hell Hath No Fury Like A Woman Scorned."

Upland Juniors Stamp Out Spots

School bells will soon be ringing in the Upland Elementary schools, and for some, school time means immunization time. This year compulsory measles immunization for first school admission in California became effective January 1, and verification of such immunization will be required upon entrance in September.

There is no reason for parents to panic, however, as the Upland Juniors will be sponsoring and staffing a Rubella Measles Immunization Clinic with Dr. John Sullivan assisting.

The Clinic will be held September 3, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., at the Upland Church of the Nazarene, 120 W. 9th St., Upland. The Juniors are undertaking the project at the request of the District PTA.

The County Health Department has advised and assisted the Juniors in setting up the Clinic and qualified nurses and Junior volunteers will be assisting the doctor.

A doctor's referral will not be required and all children one year of age to adults 21 years of age are welcome. There will be a small fee of $1.75 to cover the vaccine. According to Mrs. Mark King, the Juniors' Health Chairman, no one will be turned away.

JUNIORS MEASLES CLINIC -- is set for September 3 at the Church of the Nazarene, West Ninth Street, Upland. Mrs. Roy Taylor and Mrs. Mark King are shown completing the posters for the Junior Women's Club clinic which will provide the compulsory measles inoculations for $1.75.

The Purpose Of Education 7th-day Adventists Topic

"Instead of educated weaklings, institutions of learning should send forth men strong to think and to act, men who are masters and not slaves of circumstances, men who possess breadth of mind, clearness of thought, and the courage of their convictions."

This purpose of education is being outlined by Pastor Vern Carner this Saturday, August 17, at the 11 a.m. divine worship service at the West End Seventh-day Adventists Church, 856 N. Sultana.

In announcing the local church's annual Education Day program, Pastor Carner indicated that Christian education can help provide a goal for today's restless children, listless youth, careless young adults, and aimless aged.

Pastor Carner will call for all local church members to give more concerted support to the church-financed system of education, for Adventist schools do not accept federal aid to education. There are 4,723 elementary schools and 416 high schools, colleges, and universities—including medical training centers at Loma Linda, California, and Kettering, Ohio—in the Adventist North American Parochial education system.

The local Adventist school at 1722 E. 8th, will open its 1968-69 term on Sept. 3. Other Christian students are welcome to attend.

Women Of First Mennonite Set Annual Rummage Sale

The Serving Others girls of the First Mennonite Church, Upland, will hold a rummage sale in the Cornet Building, 250 N. 2nd Ave., Upland, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Aug. 15 and 16, and from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Aug. 17.

The church have been searching attics, kitchens, clothes closets and garages these last few weeks. If there is anything you need -- come and look, you may be surprised.

Proceeds will go to the needy areas of the church work.

Brethren In Christ Plans Operation Bridge-Building

Twenty-three Japanese young people will accompany Dr. Sakikabara on his fourth annual tour of the Upland community. The group arrived in San Francisco July 2, toured east through Indiana, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., Niagara Falls and will return to the Upland area August 23 through 26.

Operation Bridge-Building is not simply a tourist program. Under the guidance of the Mennonite Central Committee these young people will live with families, some in farming areas, some in towns. They share common tasks. They worship with these families and see life in the United States from the family level rather than tourist attractions.

The group plans to arrive from Reedley, Calif. Friday evening, Aug. 23, and will be assigned to homes in the Upland community for the weekend. They will visit Huntington Library, Forest Lawn, and Los Angeles on Saturday. A combined service is planned for the Upland Brethren in Christ church, August 25, 7 p.m. when church and community representatives will fellowship with them and hear of their impressions of American life.

Pastor Roger Richer of the Seventh Street Mennonite Church will have a devotional meditation. Community welcome will include an expression from the local ministerium by the chairman, Rev. Bruce Galbraith.

The public is cordially invited to share in this goodwill fellowship with our Japanese friends.

World Gospel Crusades Flies Out Of Upland

"November - six-six-one - tango cleared for takeoff! Those words from the control tower of an airfield this summer marked the start of efficient air transportation for World Gospel Crusades, an Upland-based missionary literature distribution agency.

A number of Christian laymen have donated funds for the purchase of a light twin-engine Beechcraft "Travel Air." "We wish to give wings to missions," they declare.

WGC President C. Mervin Russell has been flying for more than thirty years, and served for four years as the Indiana Wing Chaplain for the Civil Air Patrol with the rank of Lt. Colonel. He holds a commercial license with instrument and multi-engine ratings earned during his military service.

Dr. Russell, who resides at 1178 N. San Antonio Avenue in Upland, has just returned from a 7,000-mile trip in the new "Wings for Missions" during which he flew a missionary and two short-term workers to their fields of service in El Salvador and Guatemala.

Local Man Coordinates Campaign

Walter Wells of Upland has been named to coordinate the election campaign of Jim Spillane, Congressional candidate in California's 23rd District.

Wells, a nationally known author and consultant in administrative communications, is also a professor at California State College, Dominguez Hills.

In a recent discussion on politics, Wells remarked that if "you take the problems of communication in industry, and multiply them by the need for large sums of money, you've got the problem of political communication in a nutshell--a gigantic nutshell!"

Formerly on the faculty of Cal Poly in Pomona, Wells and his wife Joan have lived in Upland since 1964. They have two young sons, Tony and Chris, and a "calculating" Siamese cat.

Upland Mets Named Slow Pitch Champs

The Upland Mets broke loose against all opposition in the Upland Slow Pitch Tournament. . . a combination of very good batting and good pitching on the part of Don Baughman defeated all opponents.

In the opening round Key Realty bumped Car Care 9-7 with the home-run bat of Warren Kirkpatrick providing the margin in the bottom of the seventh. Car Care rallied in the top of the ninth with Gino Perez and Skip Wulf homering with men aboard, but it was not enough.

The Upland Mets took the drivers eat with a devastating 26-7 win over a good Citrus Motor nine. A twenty-one hit attack was led by big Jon Holliday with two homers and a single. David Meza and Jerry Walker both contributed four hits apiece and Jim Hoke and Jack Hammond chipped in three.

Key Realty behind three double plays kept the Mets within sight for eight innings in the second round. However the power of the Met's bats came through with six big runs in the last frame for a 14-7 victory. Charli Soto, Jim Ledesma and Jack Agapay received three hits apiece for Jack Hammond's Met nine. Don Brownell, Stan Evers, Dennis Luby and Loren Sanchez proved a strong offense for Key Realty.

A never-say-die Car Care team came from behind in the bottom of the ninth with two runs to slip past Citrus Motors 12-11. Cliff French led off with a single and two infield scratch hits by Mike Youngman and Doug Wulf loaded them up. Skip Wulf singled tying the score with bases still loaded, set the scene for Gino Perez's sacrificial fly to score Youngman with the winning run.

In the final round Key Realty sank the Ford Motor nine with a long home-run by Warren Kirkpatrick deep to left with Danny Milakovich aboard. Rick Gilmore had tied it up in the eighth with his second round tripper of the night.

In almost a repeat performance of the first round, the Mets with a 35 hit attack were too much for a staunch Car Care team 28-3. Jack Hammond had a big night with 6 hits. . . he hit for the circuit. Jerry Walker and Jim Hoke both with five hits, Jon Holliday came through with his third homer of the tournament and four hits and hustling Larry Snow, Don Holliday and Jim Ledesma contributed three hits apiece. It was a big night for the Met champs.

Upland Rec. Dept. Has Top Wrestling Mentor, Beresford

By Dan Milakovich
The Upland Recreation Department is proud to have a man of George Beresford's stature as an instructor in the wrestling program. Unlike many high school wrestling coaches who find themselves being thrown into a sport in which they have little if any experience, George Beresford, Upland High School's new mat coach, will draw upon twenty-two years of wrestling experience from which he hopes to redirect the Highlanders to their former status in CIF that they once enjoyed under veteran Pat Bandy.

His years with wrestling covers many phases of the sport. As an athlete, Beresford competed over a period of seventeen years which included high school, college, military, AAU and international levels of wrestling competition.

Some tournaments of national significance in which he won or placed include: The Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Assoc., 1st; All Army, 1st; Conference of International Military Sports, 1st; So. Pacific Sr. AAU, 1st; Wilks Open and San Diego NTC, 2nd places. He was also a finalist in the 1956 Olympic tryouts. His overall career win average was 91%.

Beresford's first coaching experience was with the Army's 14th Armored Cavalry Regt. in W. Germany where he urged his totally inexperienced Cavaliers to a 9-1 dual record and a 1st place in the 7th Army's V Corps tournament. Upon receiving his teaching credential from Cal State Long Beach, he joined the staff of Kennedy High School in Buena Park and helped move the Fighting Irish from 15th to 3rd place in the 1967 CIF Championships.

Then taking over as head coach last year, his Fighting Irish wrestlers took a step higher by placing 2nd in the 1968 CIF Finals.

When Upland's outgoing coach, Pat Bandy, decided to concentrate his efforts on football and golf and look for his successor to take over the wrestling program, his choice was Beresford. It didn't take long for the new coach to realize that the school and community were eager to get started with its young wrestlers.

Upon arriving in Upland he was immediately put to work coaching a summer recreational wrestling program through the sponsorship of Upland High School and the Upland Recreation Department.

Two teams, the "Kid Wrestlers", from age 6 to 12, and the "Jr. AAU" group, from 13 up, work out Monday thru Thursday from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. "We have about sixty boys in all out for the program, many of whom show great potential, and Kid wrestlers are undefeated thus far in four matches with other local area teams."

Should the occasion arise where it is necessary to deliberate a finer point of wrestling with the referee, Coach Beresford will be well prepared. Prior to joining the High School coaching ranks, he refereed for five years in S. California high school, college and AAU wrestling events. Currently he is preparing material to be contained in a future publication on Amateur Wrestling.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Recently I completed a four year term as Regent of San Antonio Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The threefold purpose of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, is exactly the same as when the Society was organized in 1890 and incorporated by an Act of the Congress of the United States, namely: Historical, Educational and Patriotic.

I. HISTORICAL: "To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence."
II. EDUCATIONAL: "To promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge."

III. PATRIOTIC: "To cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country."

Through the many and varied articles published by the Upland News covering our meetings and other activities, some of which have been illustrated by pictures, we have been able to adhere to the objects above named.

Therefore I would consider my work unfinished and myself ungrateful if I failed, on behalf of our Chapter, to extend our sincere and wholehearted thanks to the Upland News Staff which has always been interested, helpful and co-operative. Your kindness is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,
Irene Gottfried

TWO AWARDS FOR CABLE -- Walter Cable, Manager of Foothill Aircraft Sales and Service in Upland, recently received two awards at the International Exposition of Flight in Las Vegas for setting a new world's altitude record. One award was from France, the other from the U.S. During his 100-foot per minute climb, heavy frost enclosed the cabin of Cable's Cessna Centurian aircraft as the temperature dropped to 60 degrees below zero, forcing him to fly by instruments. It required Cable 105 minutes to set this new record for light aircraft.

WHOOSH -- Two F-102 Delta Daggers of the 163rd Fighter Group of the California Air National Guard take off from Elmendorf AFB, en route to Fairbanks, Alaska on a routine training mission as part of a 15-day field training period the Ontario-based group is undergoing at Elmendorf.

Senior Citizen's Day At The Fair, Aug. 29

VICTORVILLE-A day-to-remember here at the San Bernardino County Fair within the "Fair to Remember" (1968 theme) is Thursday, Aug. 29.

One of TV's most likable announcers, Bill Welsh, Channel 11's executive director of sports and special events, will MC a rollicking round of contests all during Senior Citizens' Day. They'll include butter-churning (1967 winner: Pauline Carver, San Bernardino), corn-husking, horseshoe-pitching (for those over 60) and dances like the Charleston, waltz and schottische.

There'll be special gifts to those over 80 and to oldest Seniors, plus a day filled with music, entertainment, prizes, trophies and favors. Admission is at reduced rates. There's even a poetry contest. A sparkling grandstand show -- free, reserved seats for Seniors -- will cap the day. Fair director Bernard M. Scheppers thus far has booked such top attractions as:

--Illusionist-magician Ralph Adams, hailed by Joan Crawford, after their appearance on television's "Hollywood Palace," as "just fabulous

... you are just faultless!" Adams has his own 2-hour TV show. He's appeared on the Mike Douglas Show, at Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas, and in many other shows.

--George West and lovely Maza, who "build a band" on-stage from members of the audience. Vice president Hubert H. Humphrey calls it "a delightful audience participation act" that can "bring down the house."

Maza, at the hi-fi electronic piano-device, produces the realistic "bagpipes," trumpet and trombone.

--Foy and Fay, world-famed jugglers who perform on the unicycle and rolling globe. Foy tosses six cups and saucers from foot to head while on the tall unicycle -- considered by European fans "the trick of the century." In his bag of tricks as well as juggling 15 objects at once on his precarious perch, Foy and Fay are favorites from Moscow to Brazil.

Other entertainers during the day include the Slovene Dancers, Sun City Novelty Band, Jubilee Band of San Bernardino and the Hesperia Harmonettes.

Mullen And Bluett's History Dates Back Almost A Century

That was back in 1883, Andrew Mullen and his partner, W.C. Bluett, decided that the City of the Angels was a city with a future and selected First and Spring Streets (the center of town) as the location for their first venture. Over the next few years business prospered and the store was expanded. In 1910, with the business community shifting southward, Mullen & Bluett moved to spacious new quarters at Sixth and Broadway, occupying the entire ground floor of the new height-limit Story Building, the most elegant building of its day. During the 1920's under the leadership of Andrew Mullen II, grandson of the founder, experimental branch stores were opened in Hollywood, Pasadena, Wilshire district and the Beverly Wilshire Hotel; later to be closed by the untimely death of Mr. Mullen in 1929. As with all business, the 30's were marked by a determination to simply maintain the status quo -- with one exception -- women's apparel was introduced at M&B for the first time and today has become an important part of the fashion picture. The end of WW II saw Mullen & Bluett's first major expansion. The beautiful and spacious Wilshire store opened on the Miracle Mile in 1948, which now also serves as general offices and executive headquarters.

The newest and eleventh Mullen & Bluett store is scheduled to open this Fall in Montclair Plaza and Maurice Mandel, vice president and general manager, has announced this appointment of Joe Cassidy as manager of the new unit. Cassidy is a former manager of the firm's Pasadena store and is currently with the South Coast Plaza store in Costa Mesa.

Jerry's Journal

by JERRY PETTIS
CONGRESSMAN, 33rd Dist.

During the past several years Americans have had a practical lesson in inflation as they attempted to stay within the family budget.

Here are few examples of skyrocketing prices today: It costs 18% more to get your pants pressed now than in 1960; the cost of having a baby is up 84.5%; cost of "bringing home the bacon" from the supermarket is now 23.7% higher.

There are many contributing reasons for inflation and I for one don't want to point the finger at only one cause. But there is no question that government regulation and spending (that is, too much of it) is a major contributing factor.

The Food and Drug Administration is a good example of an agency which is constantly reaching for new things to regulate with fanciful worded requirements. Recently it took on the monumental task of defining cherry pie and writing regulations regarding it.

Said the FDA: "Cherry pie is the food prepared by incorporating in a filling contained in a pastry shell mature, whole, pitted, stemmed, red, sour (tart) cherries (fresh, frozen or canned). The top of the pie may be opened or it may be wholly or partly covered with pastry or other suitable topping...The name of the food for which a definition and standard of identity is established by this section is cherry pie, except that if the maximum diameter of the food (measured across the opposite outside edges of the pastry shell) is not more than four inches the food alternatively may be designated by the name cherry tart.

And the FDA also produced a "standard of quality" for cherry pies

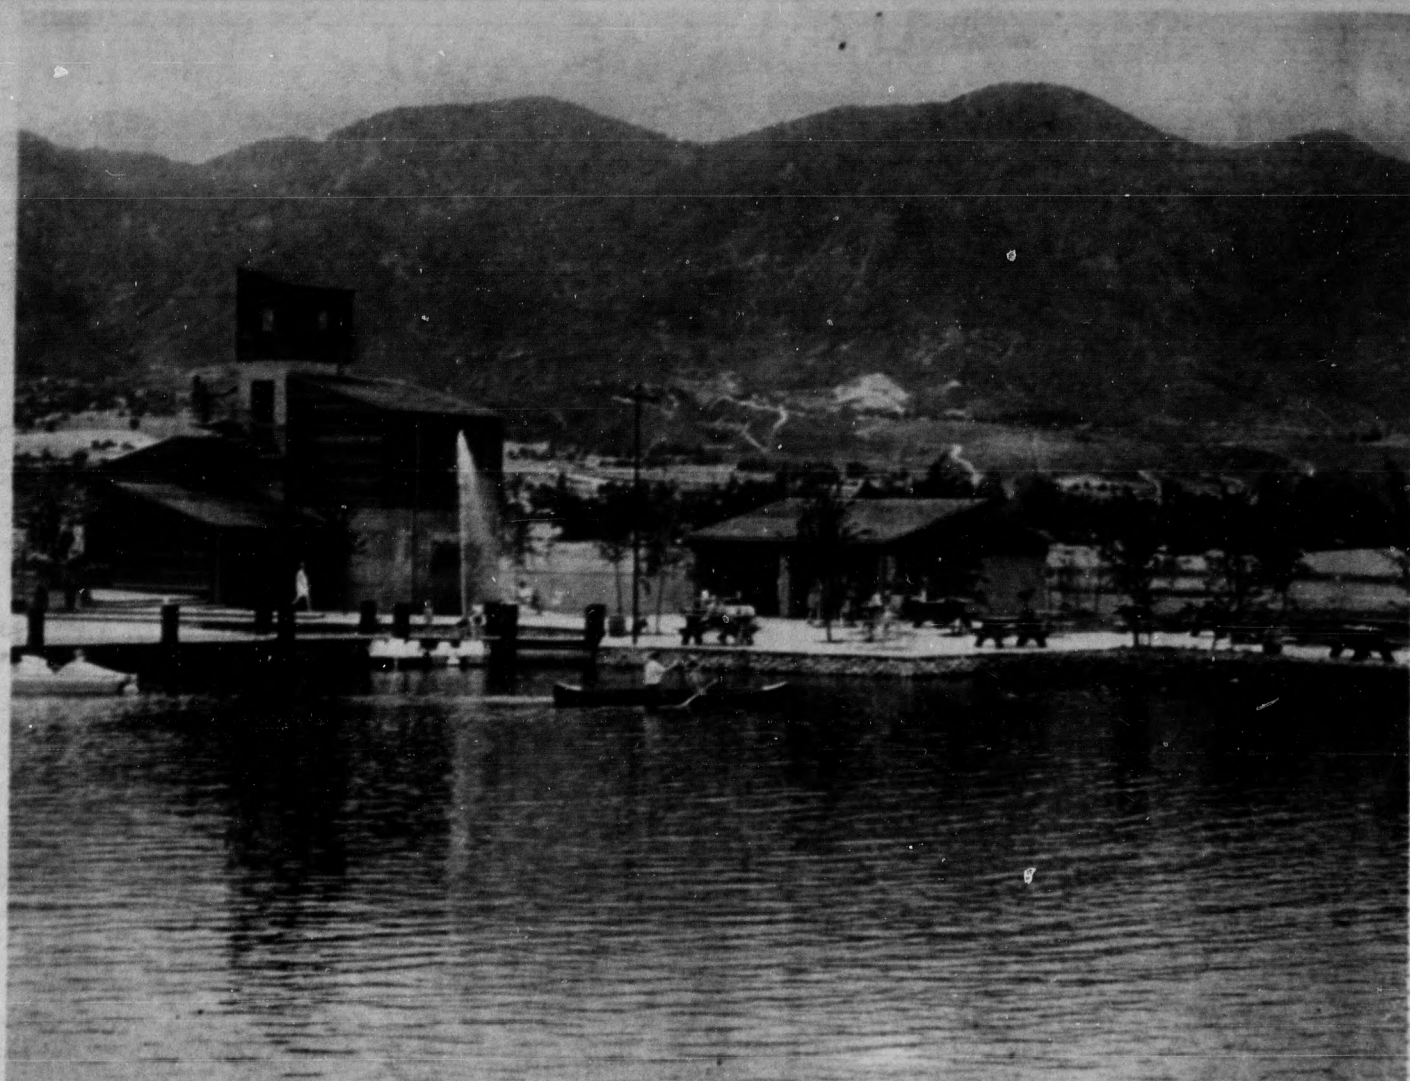

Soap for Sneakers
Use a moistened soapy scouring pad to clean the white rubber on your school child's sneakers. For extra heavy soil or tar marks, use a scouring powder.

Capt. Jacques-Yves Cousteau was born at St.-Andre-de-Cubzac, France, in 1910. He entered the Brest Naval Academy in 1930. Sent to the seaport of Toulon as a gunnery officer, he began goggle-diving and experimenting with undersea breathing apparatus and marine photography.

which should contain "not less than 2.7 cherries per ounce of net weight of the pie when examined in accordance with criteria which provided for spraying the filling with a gentle water spray over a U.S. No. 8 sieve (0.094 openings) stacked in a U.S. No. 20 sieve on a 15 to 30 degree slope."

This all means the tax-paying public can now enjoy an eight-ounce, one pound cherry pie with full confidence that it is not a tart and contains a minimum of 43.2 cherries. Frankly, any member of a generation which lived before the advent of pre-cooked, frozen and packaged pies and who spent any time at all in his mother's kitchen should know the difference between a cherry pie and a tart. He also knows that the above bureaucratic explanation is a needless waste of time and taxpayers' money.

Though the cause and effect relationship may be a bit far-fetched, such useless expenditure is one reason it costs 18% more to get your pants pressed today.

RECREATIONAL CENTER -- San Bernardino County residents will have another recreational facility at their disposal this summer when the Glen Helen Regional Park is dedicated on Sunday at 4 p.m. The park will offer picnicking, fishing, boating, nature trail, and group camping. Three lakes comprise the area with many species of plant and wildlife.

Three Weird Machines. Aid To Earning Masters Degree

A trio of weird machines, representing almost 300 hours of dedicated labor, will probably win a Masters Degree for Martin Balding of Alta Loma.

Balding, a metal working instructor at Alta Loma High School who has been in the teaching field 8 years, is completing his studies at Long Beach State College. His purpose is to determine the practicality and study the history of the atmospheric pressure machine.

The history now completed, his 3 engines are undergoing tests for theoretical uses. He thinks the work will be completed this month.

Atmospheric pressure engines, according to Balding, have been replaced by more efficient machines, but they were the "backbone" of the industrial revolution. The principle is related to hot air engines in that steam or hot gas is collected in a closed cylinder, forming a partial vacuum. Pressure is built up, moving a piston.

The first such machine was as early as 1705, and by 1780, atmospheric pressure machines were in general use for lathes, sewing machines and other industrial machinery.

James Watt's steam engine replaced it, and not much has been done since then except for a few experimental and research inquiries.

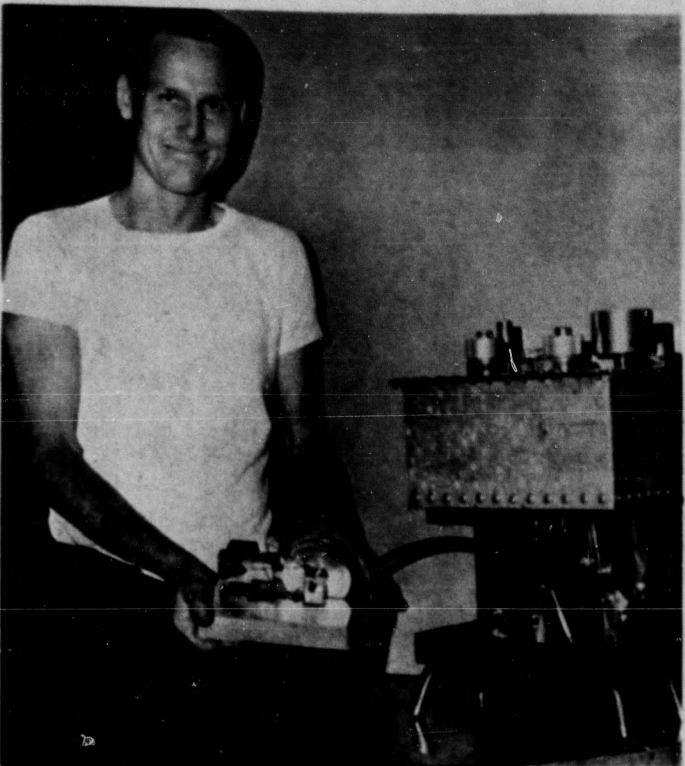

Balding built his first model, a fairly simple one, in about 100 hours. Number 2 took only about 40 hours, but was constructed just to pave the way for number 3, the largest, final and most sophisticated model.

Number 3 looks like a motion picture or television prop designed for a mad scientist's laboratory, with wheels, moving arms, a gas flame and various sound effects such as rattles, pops and jiggles.

"It's not too quiet," admits Balding with a smile as he makes adjustments.

The engines are currently in the industrial arts building at the high school where they have intrigued other faculty members and students, all of whom are rooting for the youthful teacher's success in his research.

SNAP, CRACKLE, POP! Alta Loma High School instructor Martin Balding, a candidate for his Masters degree, demonstrates how his atmospheric pressure engine operates. The gas flame at the top creates hot air, which is trapped to form a vacuum; the resulting air pressure moves the piston. Balding holds his first pressure machine which was a fore-runner of the more sophisticated model on the table.

WOODWORKING -- at Upland High School this summer was popular with Russell Hammond shown with a ski he is completing as part of the course.

UPLAND HIGH SUMMER SCHOOL -- students Tom Hermes and Don Papadourf are shown putting the finishing touches on inlaid checker boards they made as part of the woodworking program at the school.

POTTERY -- shown by Kathi Prill, a summer student at Upland High School, was one of the more popular courses taken this year by local students.

Taxable Sales For 1st Quarter

Taxable sales in San Bernardino County rose 14.5% compared to a statewide gain of 6% for the first three months of 1968 over the same period a year ago, the State Board of Equalization reported today.

Seven of the nine major urban counties exceeded the average gain, and two tripled. Orange led this group with a 20% jump over the same 1967 period, Chairman Richard Nevins said.

Taxable sales in Upland reached $8,134 for the period, but tax rate and base changes made comparisons of city sales difficult.

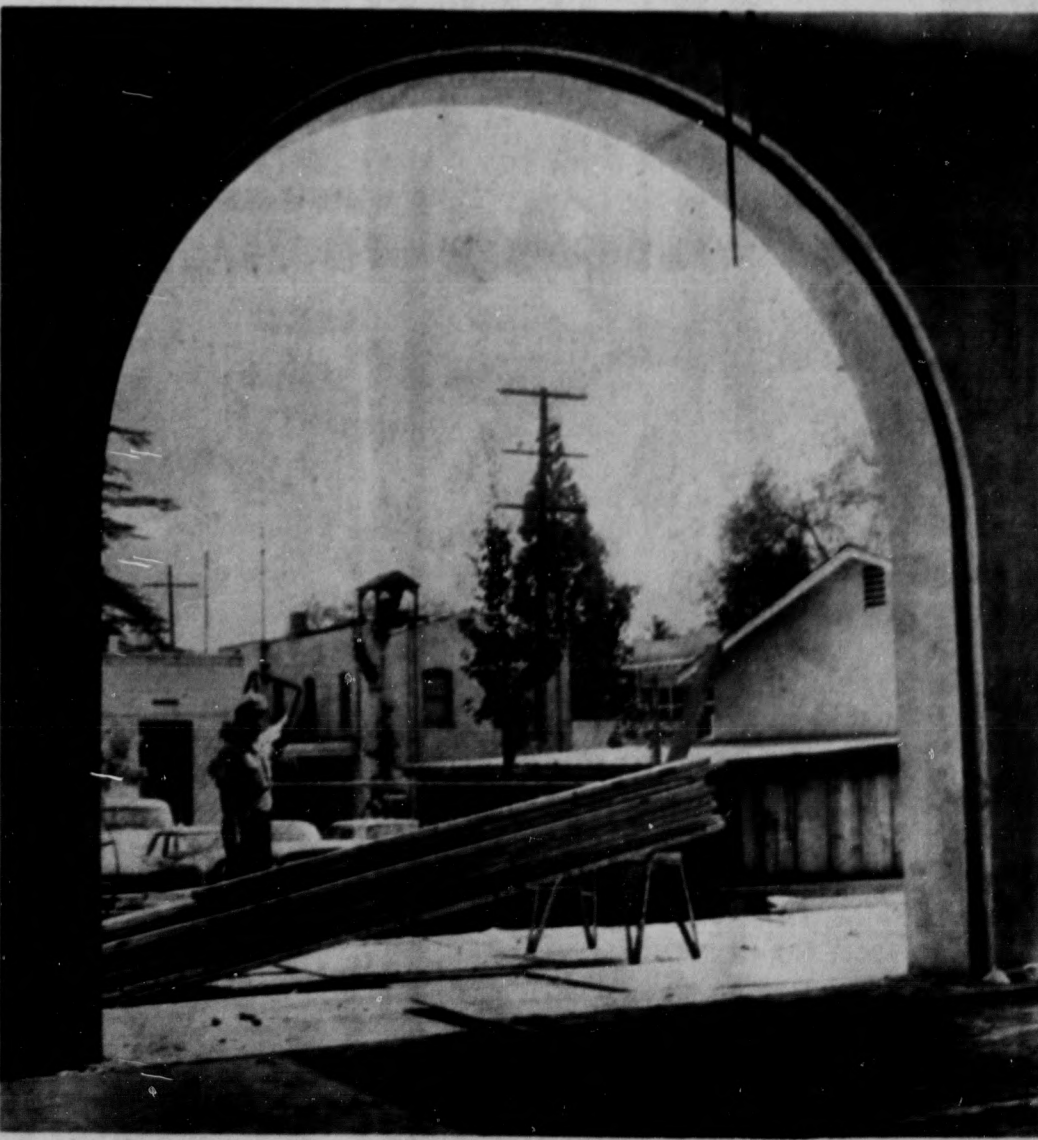

A boom in new car sales of 13% in January, February, and March over the comparable period helped 55 of the 58 counties show a plus in taxable sales.

New vehicle sales alone account for about 12% of all taxable sales in California. Used vehicle sales also were up 6 1/2% over the 1967 first quarter.

Total taxable sales set a record $8.6 billion total for the quarter and a 9% increase over the period a year ago.

The State received $349 million in revenue from its 4% sales and use tax, and collected another $87 million for cities and counties under their 1% levy.

IT HARDLY COMPARES -- Capt. Paul Harmon of the Upland Fire Department points to the present headquarters of the department on D Street. Harmon is framed by an arch in the nearly completed fire station on the corner of Arrow Highway and Second Avenue. Although the facility is not scheduled for completion until December, its construction is ahead of schedule. According to Harmon, when the new facility is completed, it will hardly compare to the department's present location.

Peppermint Twist To Make Appearance At County Fair

VICTORVILLE--The most famous bucking bull in the West expected to make an appearance at the State Championships Rodeo, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, at the San Bernardino County Fair at Victorville.

He's Peppermint Twist, owned by Andy Amsbaugh of Modesto, who'll be producer for the string of bone-jarring contests.

"Old PT," as he's known to cowboys, posted a perfect record in 1967--a total of 32 cowboys up and 32 cowboys down! They all hit the dust before the 8-second whistle.

Peppermint Twist is the only bull in the Amsbaugh string that has a name. All the others have numbers only (PT's is 159).

Amsbaugh named him partly because of his curious spotting but partly because the news media demanded it. Old PT has been "bull of the year" for the past three seasons--named by none less than Western Approved Rodeos (WAR), spokesman for the sport in Western states.

"We'll have him in the draw," says Amsbaugh. "Not many cowboys have ridden him. But I'll guarantee one thing--if they do, they'll go to the pay window."

Peppermint Twist has thrown such waddies as Bob Kennedy of Salinas, western titleholder in bull riding from 1960 to 1964; and Bill Haynes of Oakdale, title holder since 1965.

Haynes is expected to make another try at the San Bernardino County Fair. He'll be among six of the seven WAR western states titlists that are Amsbaugh champions.

At least five of them will ride at the Victorville fair.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

If you collide with another driver at an intersection, who's entitled to collect--you or the other guy? If you know your rights, you'll be able to help practice and preserve American freedoms that are yours by law and heritage. One basic freedom is the right to know; presently, you can look at government lists of American car owners, beauticians and the like, but if some people had their way, you would be denied this freedom!

Interior DECORATOR

The commercial designer-decorator must have imagination, creative ability and, above all, experience.

In over twenty-five years as an architect, architectural designer and interior designer for both commercial and domestic structures, I have found this to be true many times.

Commercial interior design has a different approach over home-interiors. In the home, consideration must be given to relatively few people. In the commercial interior, depending on the purpose of the building, the number is usually very large. Concentrated attention must be given to factors of greater usage, practicability, simplicity, ease of care and upkeep.

Size is another consideration. This involves the principles of scale and proportion. The success of a commercial interior depends on the proper use of scale in all items that are used to make it.

Applications For Heater Permits To Be Mailed

Applications for Orchard Heater permits for the 1968-69 season will be mailed to growers on August 19, 1968. County Air Pollution Control District regulations require permits for the use, operation, placing, construction, maintaining, keeping, storing, or altering of any orchard heater among, under, or between the trees in any grove or orchard, or any place where it may be used, or operated for frost protection.

Permits are issued on an annual basis and the deadline for filing applications is November 1st. Penalty fees will be assessed for delinquent applications. Applications mailed and post-marked after midnight November 1st will be considered delinquent.

Growers are requested to prepare heating equipment for inspection as soon as possible after receiving application forms so that permits may be processed and mailed prior to any heating.

Permits for heaters shall be issued upon proper application and payment of the required fees when inspection standards are met, and shall set forth the maximum burning rate permitted for each type of Class II heater covered by such permit.

Separate application and permits shall be required for heaters located on non-adjacent properties, though under single ownership. The fees for each application shall be computed without regard to the acreage covered by any other applications submitted by the same person.

By action of the Board of Supervisors after Public Hearing on June 11, 1968, the fees for the San Bernardino County Air Pollution Control District permits were increased commencing July 1, 1968. The following new schedule of fees is now in effect.

Filing Fees: (Orchard Heater)
Under 10 acres $3.50
10 to 20 acres 7.00
Over 20 acres 10.00

Original or supplemental orchard heater fees, per heater:

Class I Heaters $0.02
Class II Heaters .03
Solid fuel blocks, per acre .50
Maximum for acreage and heater fees combined $5.00

When non-firing affidavits are signed by the applicant prior to the deadline of November 1st, only the filing fee (acreage) will be required. For non-firing applications filed after November 1st, the same fees will be charged as for heaters in use.

New owners or growers of whom this office has no record may obtain the necessary forms to make applications for permits from the Air Pollution Control District office located at the Hall of Records, 172 West Third St., San Bernardino, Calif.

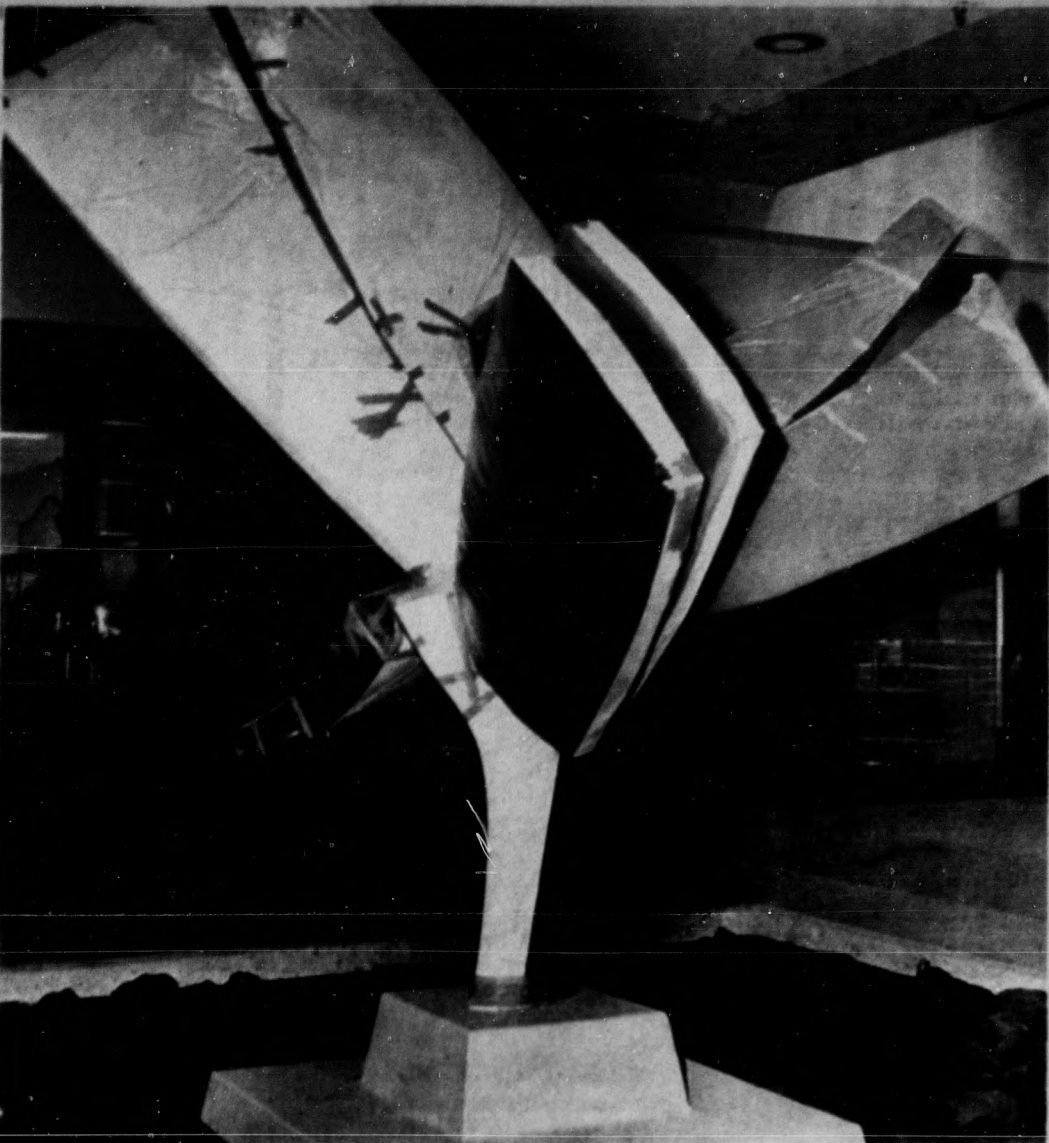

Managers To View Moon Rocket

All systems are "go" for the Kaiser Fabricating Management Club tour of the McDonnell-Douglas Astronautics Company's Huntington Beach facility Monday evening, August 19.

About 30 members of the Kaiser Steel Corporation Fabricating Division chapter of the National Management Association will be viewing the construction of the third stage of the Saturn V moon rocket. At the invitation of the McDonnell-Douglas N.M.A. affiliate, the Kaiser group will be conducted through the aerospace contractor's vertical assembly buildings, test towers, and Space Simulation Laboratory, following dinner at the plant cafeteria.

Egg Sizes Vary

Needlework Kit Instruction

Call it therapy... self-expression... or creativity, the hobby of our grandmothers--needlework--is fast becoming a very "in" pastime. From the days of the colonies, embroidery, quilting, needlepoint, crewel work and the like, have contributed richly to the American home. And, today, a renaissance of all these lovely old skills is sweeping the country.

A bright California woman whose designs were so admired by her friends and neighbors is now making a business of creating art needlework kits which just anyone can assemble. Eleanor Saris, a Pasadena doctor's wife and mother of three young children, has such a talent for designing art and craft kits she has made a name for herself both here and the Coast and back East. "Ellie's" kits make possible a number of decorative accents for home or wearing apparel anyone can easily make. There are fun animal pictures or wall hangings to make of felt and burlap, Spanish hangings to be worked in yarn on felt, stunning bags to accent every wardrobe, and many other interesting crafts to be found among the "Ellie" products.

Mrs. Saris will be at the new Broadway Montclair Thursday and Friday, August 15 and 16, from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. in the art needlework department to personally introduce her kits and to assist newcomers.

The income of the Negro family is about 40 per cent lower than the average white family, President Johnson disclosed in his Civil Rights Message to Congress.

YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN AT WORK

JOHN V. BRIGGS
35th District
CALIFORNIA STATE LEGISLATURE

Assemblyman John V. Briggs (R-35th) criticized Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh for trying to "strong-arm the California Legislature into reconvening."

Briggs was among the 80 Assembly members receiving a telegram from Unruh advising the convening of the Assembly on Monday morning after Acting Governor Burns adjourned the session. Briggs said he didn't show up Monday, nor will he, until the Governor calls the Legislature back.

"Unruh is reverting to his old boss tactics," said Briggs, "in attempting to have his way, the Unruh 'rule or ruin' way. He is particularly miffed because the Senate refused to accept his 'Robin Hood' property tax relief measure which would have penalized the suburban areas in favor of the ghetto areas of the big city."

"Out of the $155 million dollars for property tax relief, the first $43 million dollars was to go to an 'Education Improvement Plan' of which not one penny of this amount was slated for my school districts located in Orange or San Bernardino counties. The second big allocation for educational property tax relief was $42 million dollars. Here too, not one of my school districts in Orange County was to receive one penny of this amount, and only one school district in San Bernardino was to receive a 'token amount'. Thus, out of $85 million dollars (which represented over one half of the $155 million dollar relief package), my Orange County taxpayers were to receive absolutely zero, while my San Bernardino constituents received little or nothing depending on residence...that's why I voted No."

"I could not support this 'Robin Hood' approach where the same old people, the working taxpayers, were to give up any meaningful tax relief in favor of the ghetto core areas. These ghetto areas fascinate the Democrats of this State as they continually strive to divert every dollar possible into these areas always to the disadvantage of other areas. This latest 'steal' of property tax relief dollars just couldn't be bought by the State Senate who correctly killed the plan," said Briggs.

Blueing is a "cosmetic" which makes yellowed fabrics look white. It does not clean the clothes -- this can be done only with plenty of soap or detergent suds.

"Now the Speaker is, in my opinion," Briggs continued, "directly abusing the legislative power he has in trying to run roughshod over our State Constitution. He is challenging it directly by calling the Assembly into session so he can try to shove through this perverted piece of legislation."

This November the people of California will have the opportunity to vote if they favor 'Boss-type rule'."

BEATING THE BAND FOR BONDS -- Drumming up support for the Treasury's 1967 "Share in Freedom" Savings Bonds Campaign are Gail Purschitz, 17, and Stephen Mitchell, 18, members of the talented Northwestern Senior High School Band, Hyattsville, Md. These youthful musicians believe everyone should buy Savings Bonds. As they say--"After all, our men in Vietnam do."

Quimby Condemns Hasty Adjournment Of Legislature

Assemblyman John P. Quimby (Demo-Rialto) issued the following statement last week regarding the adjournment by acting Governor Hugh Burns of the 1968 session of the State Legislature.

"I feel that every legislator has the responsibility of clearly stating his position on the historic, yet tragic, attempt at adjourning the 1968 legislative session in Sacramento this past weekend. This responsibility is particularly timely when one considers that the people of the state of California, by their passage of Proposition 1-A, have charged their legislature with the responsibility of being on the job on a full-time basis. It seems particularly unfortunate to me that for the first time in 117 years a governor would see fit to invoke a provision of the State Constitution to adjourn the Legislature when that Governor is in fact a member of the State Senate in the person of President Pro Tem Hugh Burns and in view of the fact that he has invoked that provision of the constitution at the request of a Resolution passed by that State Senate with a shaky vote of 17 yes and 9 no.

I realize the gravity of the statement that I am about to make. However, I feel compelled to report to my constituents that the California State Senate has collapsed in a state of "do nothing" haze. What we have in Sacramento now is an old crony surrounded by his senile friends who less than two hours after being given the responsibility of leadership collapsed under the weight of that responsibility and rather than stay at the helm and provide the people of this state with meaningful legislation, reached out for an obscure outdated provision of the State Constitution and adjourned the session. It has been observed by some senators that the assembly sent the Senate "legislation that was too lengthy" to decide upon at the last minute. While this is a convenient excuse, I beg your indulgence for a moment to review the facts. The lengthy legislation referred to was in fact a conference committee report. The conference committee was composed of three members of the Assembly and three members of the Senate, who were making suggested amendments to legislation that had been under consideration by both houses of the legislature for almost seven months. There is not one member of the legislature who can provide an acceptable reason why they were not completely and fully conversant with every word of the proposed legislation, be it the property tax relief bill, the aid to education bill, the inventory tax reduction bill, household furnishings exemption bill, disability insurance bill, workmen's compensation bill, or any other measure that is left unresolved. The obvious course of action for the State Senate to have taken, if more time was needed to review the legislation, was to recess the legislature until the next legislative day or take the necessary hours or days to further review the conference committee report and cast an intelligent vote.

As I see it, if acting Governor Hugh Burns' action prevails, the following situation will exist: The State coffers will be burdened with in excess of Three Hundred Million Dollars of unappropriated monies ($155 million dollars property tax relief money and over $150 million dollars in unused surplus revenue). There will be no property tax relief as was promised by Governor Reagan and most of the legislators in the recent campaign. There will be no state support for education. There will be no solution to the perplexing financial problem of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District and numerous other problems that should be resolved by the legislature will go unresolved.

As I see it, the following are some questions that can be properly asked by every individual taxpayer: Who is going to tell the board of Education of the San Bernardino Unified School District, the Colton School District, the Fontana School District, the Ontario and Upland Districts, or any other district in San Bernardino County and the State, what they are going to do for basic State Aid when they meet their tax deadline on August 6th? Who is going to explain to the overburdened taxpayer his inevitable tax increase when there is over $300 million dollars in the State Treasury not being used for this purpose? Who is going to explain to the senior citizens that his promised tax relief will not be forthcoming? And finally, and probably most important, who is going to defend invoking the executive branch of the government in what is clearly a legislative function; namely that of adjourning the State Legislature. Obviously Governor Ronald Reagan concurred in the diabolical invasion by the Executive into the Legislative prerogative. In my opinion, all of the polished beautifully presented television speeches by Governor Reagan will not explain away a tragic attempt at collapsing the California Legislature.

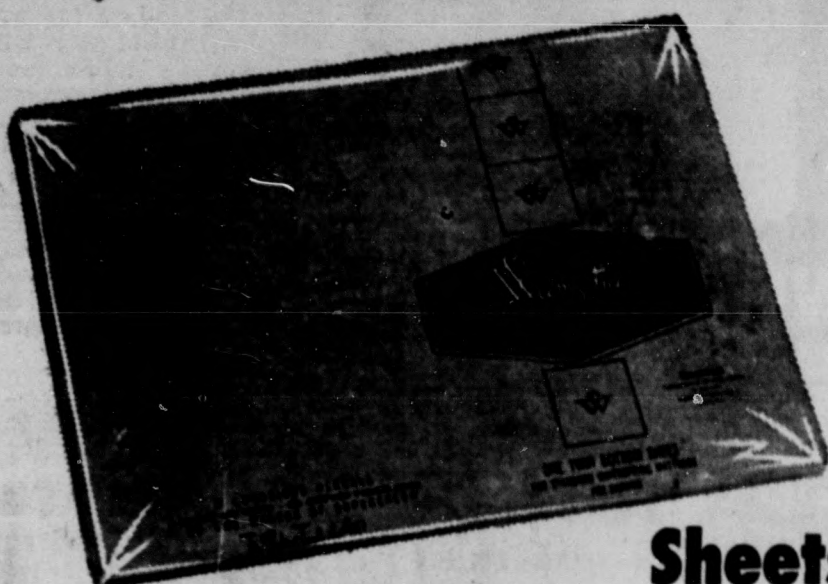

I have decided that there is no more important job for me than to remain in the State Capitol, to be at my desk in the Assembly at 10 a.m. Monday, August 5th, ready to do my job as a legislator in resolving the important problems as outlined above. I do not believe it unfair of me to say that for every State Legislator who is not at his post and in fact in spite of the National Convention for the governor and the Lt. governor of this state in this unprecedented time of crisis to be away from their post constitutes nothing short of a dereliction of their duties.

Since this seems to be a time for calling the situation as one sees it, and in view of the fact that it is the State Senate and a member of that body that has contributed to this crisis, I have one further report to make to the people regarding the conduct of the upper house of the state Legislature. I think it is about time for someone to publically say what has been observed by people in Sacramento all during this session. That is, the simple fact that the State Senate has engaged in the most shoddy of all practices... that of secret closed door sessions of the various Senate Committees. I have found it personally repugnant to be called upon this session to vote upon an extension of the Brown Act as it applies to local governmental bodies while at the same time I know that the Senate Committee on Governmental Efficiency and Senate Committee on Finance and other committees of the upper house have as a regular practice week after week met in secret sessions, decided in advance what they will do on pieces of legislation that come before them, even go to the extent of who will make the motion and who will vote for and against bills and then literally march out on stage as if they were puppets on a string and after blankly listening to whatever testimony is given by proponents and opponents date to play out their charade, instead of holding an open and informative meeting as an important Senate Policy committee should.

These are not idle accusations issued in the heat of anger, nor is it because three of my own bills were caught in this legislative nightmare and may see defeat. The comments that I make here constitute the fulfilling of what I feel to be my responsibility to my constituents in light of this tragic attempt to conclude the state legislature on a fruitless basis. If it is to be determined that the 1968 session of the legislature is in fact adjourned, and if the consequences are as dramatic as I feel they are, it seems to me in the coming weeks and months, particularly in this election year, the people of this state as maybe never before have the right to ask some very penetrating questions of every one of their legislators regarding their legislative conduct in Sacramento. The question then simply boils down to this. Do we in fact have a full time capable legislature or do we have at the helm ineffectual, weak individuals who render excuses for their irresponsible acts."

Local 4-H'ers Enter County Fair Contests For Awards

POMONA - Upland High School student, Pat Miller has entered Junior Fair competition at this year's 41st annual Los Angeles County Fair, held here Sept. 13-29.

Miss Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Miller, 1430 Isabelita Ct., Upland, plans to vie for honors in arts and crafts competition with an entry of paintings and charcoal drawings. She has been doing this type of work for two years.

Junior Fair is special division competition for youngsters 9-19. Special competition is open within the division for college agriculture students and members of 4-H, Future Farmers of America and Future Homemakers.

The largest county fair in the nation, the Pomona exposition will run 17-days and host over a million visitors.

Strength in Reserve.

Today's Army Reserve is made up of over one million Americans. It has served our country in all the major conflicts of this century, and is doing so today in Vietnam.

THE U.S. ARMY RESERVE

Man's Eyes Are The Window To His Heart

Man's eyes have been called the window of his soul. Somewhat less romantically, but in a much more practical sense, they might better be labeled the window to his heart.

And this is why--If you have wondered--your physician looks long and carefully into your eyes with a brightly lighted magnifying scope during the course of a routine heart examination.

Whether he is a heart specialist or a general practitioner, he will, of course, be on the alert for signs of disease specific to the eyes, but also he will be concerned with the condition of your blood vessels, as a clue to the state of your heart and its vascular system.

It happens that the blood vessels at the back of the eye are the only ones in the body that are normally exposed to view. If the tell-tale signs of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) are present there, then vessels elsewhere in the body are likely to be similarly affected.

Some of the other things your physician does during his examination of the status of your cardiovascular system may seem mysterious--or even somewhat silly. There is a very good reason for every one of them.

He may, for instance, ask you a great number of questions about your own background, habits and complaints, and even about long-dead relatives--particularly if he has not seen you previously or for a long time.

An answer to a question about yourself which may seem completely inconsequential could well tip off an intuitive doctor to an unsuspected condition which further checks will reveal.

And your relatives are important because inheritance is unquestionably involved in the tendency toward many types of heart disease.

Your doctor will, of course, take your pulse. The rhythm of that pulse, drumming lightly against his sensitive and knowing finger tips, can tell him much about the health of your heart.

He will learn even more through the use of that familiar trade mark of his profession, the stethoscope; he can hear even the tiny sounds made by the opening and closing of the heart's valves.

Abnormal sounds, differences in sound intensity, changes in rhythm and pitch--all these spell out for him conditions that call for further investigation.

He will learn still more about your heart by taking your blood pressure, on that intriguing gadget, with its cloth cuff and bulb and calibrated column. The reading he gets, as you will remember, comes in a sort of fraction, such as 140/85.

The first figure is the "systolic" pressure, taken at the moment your heart contracts to pump blood out into the arterial system and throughout the body.

The second is the "diastolic" pressure, taken when your heart is between beats and while the chambers are refilling with blood preparatory to another stroke.

Your doctor may not tell you your exact blood pressure readings; he may report only that your pressure is high, or--most likely--normal.

He has good reason for not being more exact: figures can be frightening and misleading unless they are understood in proper context. For instance, a reading that is "low" for you may be quite normal or even "high" for your wife, your child or your fellow worker.

Your physician may wish to check your beating heart under the fluoroscope, a special type of x-ray, by means of which he can watch the organ in action, studying its size, its shape, its position and the way it contracts.

And he may wish to take an electrocardiogram, a recording of the minute electrical charges that trigger the beats of your heart. Such a reading--famously known as EKG--can often show, in the form of the tracings, if your heart has suffered damage from an attack.

But neither an EKG reading nor any other test means necessarily that you are in trouble. Mostly they are simply precautionary.

You can take heart from the evidence that periodic examinations are as good a guard as there is against heart disease.

sent there, then vessels elsewhere in the body are likely to be similarly affected.

NEW AIRPLANE ON WESTERN ROUTES--Western Air Lines inaugurated services with its newest airplane, the Boeing 737, to 10 cities in California and Nevada last Thursday. The twin-engine aircraft, specifically designed for short flights, will make it possible to provide jet service to a number of cities (including an Ontario-Palm Springs flight) for the first time. Western's 737s will replace Electra prop-jets now used on the routes.

Robinson Named Kaiser SoCal PR Director

Raymond E. Robinson has been appointed director of public relations in Southern California for Kaiser Steel Corporation, it was announced this week by John D. Saussaman, vice president of operations at the Kaiser Steel plant in Fontana.

Robinson was previously director of community services for the company in the Los Angeles metropolitan area since 1961. In his new post, he will have offices in the steel plant in Fontana and will direct public relations activities of the various steel, fabricating, and mining operations of the company in Southern California, including activities in the Los Angeles area.

Joining Kaiser Steel in 1948 as a production assistant at Fontana, he transferred the following year to the public relations department as a public relations representative and then became administrative assistant to the director. He was later in charge of press relations and coordinated the plant tour program. In 1960 he was named assistant to the director of public relations.

Baby Delivery Part Of 'Job'

Officer Ray Morris, San Bernardino Area Highway Patrolman, was assigned to the Yucaipa Area August 5th, 1968. At approximately 8:30 a.m. he was clocking a speeder W/B on Route 10.

The driver, Helen Roberts, suddenly pulled off onto the Live Oak Canyon off-ramp, jumped out of her car and ran back to Officer Morris and stated, "My daughter-in-law is having a baby right now." Officer Morris called the Yucaipa Valley ambulance service to roll an ambulance, Code 3 at 8:41 a.m. and also radioed for Officer Walt Wolf to come and assist at 8:50 a.m.

Officer Morris called and advised the ambulance was too late; they had just delivered a baby girl.

Mrs. Helen Robbins was transported to the Redlands Community hospital. A hospital spokesman indicated that Mrs. Robbins and the infant, Tamra Lynn, were doing fine.

Registration At Chaffey College

ALTA LOMA - Registration for the fall semester at Chaffey College will continue from Aug. 14 through Sept. 4.

The registration schedule for day classes is 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., week days; for evening classes, 6:30 - 9 p.m., Mondays through Thursday.

Prospective new full-time students must have their high school or previous college transcripts sent to the admissions office at Chaffey as a registration procedure requirement.

Part - time students must also have their transcripts directed to this office prior to completion of 12 units.

There will be a final opportunity also to take the American College Test, Aug. 28. The test will be at 6 p.m. in the college library.

An ACT score is another entrance requirement for students taking 12 or more units and veterans receiving G.I. educational benefits. The ACT service charge is $4.50.

The admissions office requests that students reporting for registration have their Social Security cards on their persons. Accurate Social Security numbers must be included on applications.

The college will accept registrants for off-campus courses at the first class session at the designated classroom.

Information on registration requirements and course offerings may be had by calling 987-1737, 822-7456, or 626-9811.

The fall session will begin Sept. 10.

OPEN HOUSE EXHIBITS--displayed in Memorial Park last week when the Upland Recreation Department closed the summer season included the above works shown by from the left, Kimberly Ann Gifford, Philip Balsley, Stephanie Lally and David Balsley.

MOD TO CONVENTIONAL -- Is it a boy or a girl? If you glanced at the first picture in the sequence you may have received the impression that it was a girl or a boy with the up-to-date mod look. Actually, it's the editor's (Mrs. Rosamond Douglas) youngest, Kenny, visiting the barber for his first haircut. Blessed with a joyful disposition, which is evident in the second pose, he met the new experience with no qualms whatsoever and not a tear was shed throughout the ceremony. And when the ordeal was over -- shown in the final sequence -- though he isn't quite at the conversation stage, you may gather from the expression that he's saying: "So what else is new?"

LOS ANGELES - Summertime is: competition, field trips, teamwork, marine biology, movies, astronomy, and having O.J. Simpson teach you how to take a hand-off and run with a football.

Summertime is discovering that learning is fun. That's how hundreds of Los Angeles youngsters who live near the University of Southern California are finding their summer.

They're participants in USC's newly inaugurated, tuition-free Neighborhood Summer Youth Program, a three-pronged blend of sports, academics and entertainment.

Comprised of USC Sports Club, "Mini College," and Neighborhood Film Series, the program is specifically designed for youngsters in the 12 to 15-year-old, junior high age bracket. The outstanding characteristic shared by USC professors, coaches, counselors and staff active in the program is enthusiasm.

The USC Sports Club, presided over by Jim Dennis, a husky, six-foot-five graduate student who likes kids and speaks their language, has the largest participation of any of the USC programs' offerings; average daily attendance is nearly 200 boys.

The Sports Club literally got off to a running start the first day when USC's champion back, O.J. Simpson, conducted a football clinic, demonstrating his game-winning form to youngsters in small groups.

Subsequently, each of USC's assistant football coaches has instructed the boys in his individual specialty. Head Coach John McKay conducted a football program for the youngsters, treating them to a film with narration of USC's Rose Bowl win over Indiana.

Thirteen teams function as units in each sport. Each team is under the supervision of an individual counselor. Most of the counselors are USC graduate students, and all of them are experienced in youth leadership.

Sporting brightly-colored jerseys given to them by USC, each team has chosen its separate designation -- ranging from the "Rampaging Rams" to the "Green Berets."

At the end of the program, members of the team which has accrued the most points, based on attendance and wins in each sport, will be awarded trophies. Every youngster who has attended the program's activities consistently will get a USC Sports Club block letter.

Although the academic side of the USC Neighborhood Summer Youth Program is smaller in numbers, it is no less intensive and comprehensive, according to university officials.

A pilot educational program for junior high school boys and girls, Mini College is opening new vistas of the arts and sciences to encourage the youngsters to develop their individual potential, to apply themselves to their studies, and motivate them toward continuing their education in college.

Although there is a sizable waiting list, the Mini College enrollment was limited to 45, because of the experimental nature of the program and the goal of giving maximum attention to each youngster, according to Brian Heimerl, the USC graduate who is program co-ordinator.

Seventy-five per cent of the Mini Collegians have perfect attendance records, Heimerl said.

Subjects, professors and their respective programs include: Astronomy--Dr. Gibson Reaves; lecture and instructional motion picture; field trip to Griffith Park Observatory.

Marine Biology -- Dr. Basil Nafpaktitis; tour of USC's Hancock Foundation laboratories; field trip to Marineland of the Pacific.

Cinema -- David Johnson; USC's cinema students' experimental films and discussion; tour of MGM Studios.

Communications -- Dr. Edward Borgers; tour and explanation of KUSC Studios and Daily Trojan.

Music -- Mrs. Dorothy Hartshorn; tapes, the development of sound, techniques of recording; participation program with group singing.

Geology -- Dr. Richard Stone; instructional film; tour of laboratories; field trip.

Art -- Prof. Madeline Creamer; tour of campus studios; group participation.

In addition to these activities, other educational field trips are being conducted for the group, including ones to the County Art Museum, International Airport and a food-packing plant.

Capping the program on Aug. 29, the Mini Collegians will be treated to a field trip to Disneyland.

"The Disneyland tour will be a day of fun, but in keeping with the Mini College theme, it will also be a learning experience," Heimerl said.

"We plan to give the youngsters a behind-the-scenes look at Disneyland, tell them how it originated, how it has developed in terms of its planning, and show them how a major amusement center operates."

Another built-in feature of Mini College is a motion picture to be produced with the help of USC's Division of Cinema.

The film will be a documentary relating the story of Mini College, with each student functioning as producer and director of individual segments.

Third part of USC's Neighborhood Summer Youth Program is the Neighborhood Film Series--and that's geared for recreation -- just plain fun.

Pretense — Kissin' George Duel At Del Mar

DEL MAR — A return to the races of Llangollen Farm's Pretense, a leading candidate for "Horse of the Year" honors in 1967, will add dash and excitement to the 23rd running of the $15,000 Bing Crosby Handicap at Del Mar Saturday. This six furlong stake traditionally decides the sprint championship of the seaside season.

Pretense, on the shelf since last September, apparently has recovered from his racing injuries and Trainer Charlie Whittingham has him burning up the track in morning works. If he does well in the Bing Crosby, it is Whittingham's intention to start him in the nine furlong Del Mar Handicap here on Labor Day, Sept. 2. Before he went to the sidelines, Pretense compiled earnings of more than $400,000 and was the star of the 1967 Santa Anita winter meeting.

Stout opposition for the Llangollen ace will come from DeCourcy Graham's Kissin' George, who will be seeking a repeat victory in the Crosby. Last August, the swift gelding easily defeated a strong collection of sprinters with a three length triumph in 1:08 3/5. In his last start, however, Kissin' George was defeated. That was in the Lakes and Flowers Handicap on July 19 at Hollywood Park and his conqueror was Miles Arnold's Speedy King, also a definite starter in the Crosby. The latter led from flagfall to finish in that essay in a sensational 1:08 1/5 six furlongs to equal the Hollywood Park track record.

GRAPE VINE

The largest grape vine on record was one planted in 1942, at Carpinteria, California, which yielded over 10 tons of grapes in some years.

Claremont Colleges Seeking Minority Group Students

Claremont—The Claremont Colleges recently kicked off a long-range campaign to attract more minority group students to their cluster of five independent, undergraduate colleges. As a first step, the college group unveiled a display at the Third Annual Watts Summer Festival designed to present youths from the area with basic information on new college education opportunities now available at Claremont.

The display is part of an extensive recruitment program to raise the number of negro students at the colleges. Beginning with the September 1969 semester, Claremont expects to be offering admission to a minimum of 10% black students for the classes entering Pomona, Claremont Men's, Scripps, Pitzer and Harvey Mudd Colleges. Members of the Admissions Offices, Black Students Union and Center for Educational Opportunity of the Claremont Colleges will be manning the display in Will Rogers Park over the weekend. They will distribute printed material on the colleges and explain application procedures, curriculum offerings, and all other related matters of interest to young people and parents. Interested youths will also be asked to sign up for further exposure to the Claremont Colleges during the Fall months. As part of the overall campaign, Claremont will be recruiting in high schools and junior colleges on a continuing basis. On hand for the opening of the display were Mrs. Edgar Evers, who has just been appointed assistant to the director of the Claremont Colleges Center for Educational Opportunity, and Bert D. Hammond, newly-appointed assistant director for admissions and community relations of the Center. Mrs. Evers and Mr. Hammond, both of Claremont, are also officials of the Watts Festival.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

by RON WHITE

How's this for an oddity . . . Stan Musial made a total of 3630 hits in his baseball career; exactly 1815 of those hits came at home and exactly 1815 came on the road! . . . That's a little hard to believe, but it's been checked and it's true.

Here's an interesting baseball puzzle for you . . . Suppose a batter is at the plate with two strikes . . . The next pitch comes in and the batter swings and misses — but, at the same time he swings, the ball hits him . . . What's the ruling? Is it a strike out or is it a hit-batsman with the batter entitled to go to first base? . . . Baseball rules say that if you swing and miss at a pitch at the same time that the ball hits you, it is not a hit-batsman, but it is a strike.

Of all the men who have ever played golf, which one had the most perfect golf swing? . . . A survey was taken on that question recently, and the man getting the most votes was Sam Snead.

That 10% Surtax Bill

Los Angeles—On June 28, 1968, President Johnson signed into law the 10% Federal income surtax bill. The bill requires a 10% surtax for the period from April 1, 1968 to June 30, 1969.

Employers were required to begin withholding the additional 10% from workers' paychecks after July 13. However, this new withholding rate does not cover the period from the retroactive date of the law on April 1 to enactment on July 13, 1968.

F. S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue, is urging employees to check their current tax status. "Taxpayers can avoid larger tax payments when filing 1968 returns by adjusting payroll deductions now," Mr. Schmidt said.

Internal Revenue Form W-4 should be used for this purpose. Individuals who have filed estimated tax declarations for 1968 and have paid the first two installments are required to revise their estimates to reflect the surcharge. Many taxpayers may become initially liable for estimated tax payments because of the surtax. Revised or newly submitted Forms 1040-ES should be filed before September 15.

'Jumping Beans'

The movement in jumping beans is caused by moth larvae, which spin cocoons within the beans or seeds of certain Mexican shrubs. Most jumping beans come from Alamos, Mexico.

Protect Hair from Sun

When sunbathing, protect bleached or dyed hair with a scarf, apply a good oil or sun-screening lotion to the skin and cover your eyes with soft cosmetic puffs. Contrary to popular belief, most tinted glasses are not effective sun-screening aids; they reduce glare but not the potency of the sun's rays.

Road Test Magazine chose the Renault 10 as the number one import under $2,000.

They haven't changed their minds.

Each year Road Test Magazine rates imported cars in the $2,000 price range. Eight of the top selling imports were compared this year. They were judged in 5 categories: engineering, roadability, performance, comfort and economy. When the points were added up, the Renault 10 came out on top again. Take the Renault 10 on a test drive and you'll probably end up picking the same winner.

New Claremont Building For PFF Started

Ground was broken this week for the $571,000 Claremont office of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The office, the association's eighth, is expected to be completed next February. It will be located at 393 West Foothill Boulevard, the northeast corner of Foothill and Indian Hill Boulevards.

Plans call for the construction of a two-story building with basement comprising a total of 27,000 square feet of floor space. According to J.P. Lee, manager of the Claremont branch, part of the structure will be leased to service type of businesses.

Berry Construction Co. of Ontario is the general contractor. The building was designed by artist Millard Sheets.

Until the building is completed, the Claremont branch will continue to operate out of leased quarters at 228 West Foothill Blvd., according to Paul D. Walker, president of the financial institution.

Moles usually do not eat vegetables but dine on grubs, insects in the larva stage, and the like.

August Month Of Merriment

A splendid mixture of side-splitting comedy and liting music--this is the entertainment fare for August out Anaheim way at Lewis and Dare's Melodyland Theatre.

So far, three block-buster shows have been booked; on August 16 and 17 the great standup comedian Bob Newhart shares stellar billing with vocalist Bill Medley, late one-half of the famous Righteous Bros. duo; on August 19, Harry James, his on the contemporary scene, while Cosby loves to dwell on his early days when he was growing up in Philadelphia. Between them they had sold perhaps 30 million albums.

Donrey Group Buys Booneville Arkansas Weekly

Booneville, Ark., Donrey Media Group has purchased the Booneville Democrat, oldest business enterprise in Booneville. Purchase of the 69-year-old weekly becomes effective August 1, according to Mr. and Mrs. Val Zachariah, publishers of the Democrat. Ross Pendergraft, Donrey vice-president, and general manager of Southwestern Operating Co., Fort Smith, has named Manuel E. Mann general manager of the Democrat. Pendergraft said Mann will assume his duties here immediately and will be moving here with his family as soon as suitable housing can be arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Zachariah "will be here a few weeks to work with the new management," according to a joint announcement by Pendergraft and the former publishers. The new owners said, "The same aggressive policies to promote business and to improve the economic and social level of this area will be continued and increased where possible."

It was also stated "no personnel changes are anticipated." Mann, a Hope, Ark. native, is a graduate of Van Buren High School. He has been with Donrey about seven years, "and actually has been associated with newspapers for about 13 years," said Pendergraft. In addition to Arkansas properties in Fort Smith and Rogers, the Donrey Media Group publishes newspapers in Oklahoma, Texas, Nevada, California, Alaska and Hawaii.

The ownership of the Booneville Democrat has not until today been outside of the Hampton and Zachariah family since it was founded by H. T. Hampton, Mrs. Zachariah's grandfather, in 1899. Extra Ice Cubes If more than the usual amount of ice cubes are needed, let plastic egg trays provide extra freezing trays.

...about your SOCIAL SECURITY...

By Hugh B. Chapman
Pomona Dist. Manager
Social Security Administration

Joan and Bill are just two of 175,000 children recently covered by the new Social Security Act. Joan is 14 and Bill is 12. To them this means little. But to their father, Sam, it means a lot.

When their mother died in 1961, Sam went to the Social Security office to find out what benefits were payable for the children. His wife had been employed in jobs covered by Social Security from 1946 to 1953, when Joan was born. After that she did not work.

Social Security informed Sam that there were no benefits payable to the children. Under the law at that time she had to have worked a year and a half of the three years before her death. Sam was paid a lump sum of $248 to help pay the cost of funeral expenses.

Sam's concern was for his children and he asked what would happen if he died, and we told him that the rule about working for half the time in the three years before her death applied only to a mother. They would receive monthly payments starting with the month of his death. Sam wondered aloud why there was one rule for mothers and another for fathers when both worked. Congress and the President wondered too! That's the reason they changed the Social Security law to permit children to receive payments at the time of their mother's death under the same rules as for their father.

Sam has now applied for payments for both Joan and Bill and beginning in February 1968 they will each receive a check in the amount of $72.60.

Both children plan to go to college. Joan is interested in teaching and would like to go to Stanford. Bill wants to be an engineer (last week it was a lawyer) and wants to attend either M.I.T. or Cal. Tech.

If both Joan and Bill go through 4 years of college, Social Security benefits for this period alone will amount to close to $7,000.

It may not pay the entire cost of their education, but it will certainly cover most of it and relieve Sam of a very heavy expense.

If you are the father of children whose mother has died, you should contact your social security office. If you know of some children who may benefit from this new provision, please tell the parents or guardians to contact us. Our office is located at 445 E. Holt Ave. in Pomona. Our telephone number is 986-2239. We are open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., on Monday we remain open until 7:30 p.m. to assist anyone who cannot come in during our regular hours.

College Grad? Want To Teach Here's Chance

LOS ANGELES - Calling all college graduates who aspire to a teaching career....

The University of Southern California School of Education, in conjunction with the Los Angeles City Schools, announces openings beginning in September in a variety of practical, on-the-job, earn-while-you-learn teacher education programs.

Offered at both the elementary and secondary levels, the special programs allow candidates to serve in local classrooms as teacher assistants, interns and student teachers while they complete education course requirements in the evening on the USC campus.

Each one of several one or two - year programs leads to the elementary or secondary teaching credential. All education course work is applicable to the master's degree.

Further information can be obtained by contacting Dr. Donald Wilson, director of Teacher Education, USC School of Education, University Park, Los Angeles (90007), telephone 746-6266.

Y Slates Tiny Tot, Pee Wee Swim Classes

The Pomona Valley YMCA announced today that the third session for Tiny Tots and Pee Wee Swimming classes will begin on August 12. Swimming classes are for ages three to seven years.

Classes will be held twice a week and the course will extend for four weeks. Each Tiny Tot and Pee Wee class is set at thirty minutes per class. Program curriculum will include adjustment to the new environment of water and each child will adjust to this new situation at his own individual rate. The child will also develop confidence in the instructor and the program will include repetition of the basic swim movements so as to establish proper nerve muscle response for swimming skills. Skills in which the child will be developing will be the basic crawl strokes, proper breathing techniques, jumping into the water, dives, sculling and treading the water for water safety. They will also learn elementary forms of life saving. The YMCA will also offer these classes for the children ages three to seven years during the winter and spring months.

For further information please contact the Pomona Valley YMCA at 623-6433. This summer the Pomona Valley YMCA has taught over three hundred youngsters to swim.

Brownies Jr. GS Camping 'Out'

One hundred twenty-two Brownie and Junior Girl Scouts from all over the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council are attending Camporall day camp at Picnic Hill, Los Angeles County Fairgrounds.

The General Day Camp began Aug. 6-9 and continues Aug. 13-15, and offers a wide variety of learning opportunities in outdoor skills, nature crafts, outdoor cooking, and hikes.

The girls, ages 7 to 11, will plan and perform skits and will stage a song fest and hat contest. One of the highlights of the camp will be an overnight encampment August 14 at which time parents will be invited to open-house and a campfire program.

Weather Road Enemy

WASHINGTON - Studies show weather is the worst enemy of good highways. Soaking rains, frost, heat, and rapid temperature changes break up highways - even those where traffic is light.

Trucks Are Lifeline

WASHINGTON - Over 35,000 communities in America depend totally on truck transportation for deliveries of every item needed for daily living.

Truck Taxes Reported
WASHINGTON - Annual state and federal highway use taxes for a typical heavy truck range from $1,581 for a three-axle tractor-trailer (40,000 pounds gross vehicle weight) to $3,200 paid by a five-axle tractor-trailer (72,000 lbs. GVW).

The Japanese lead all other nations in shipbuilding, turning out about half of all the new vessels launched in a year.

Your Assemblyman

By John V. Briggs
35th District

A full-scale effort to ease the scourge of unemployment in poverty-stricken areas of the state, particularly in urban centers, has been set in motion by the Legislature's passage of a bipartisan job development and training program.

This landmark program is the product of some 18 months of cooperative effort between the Legislature and administration, the job training and placement council, and private business.

Its thrust is to focus the total resources of the community on the problem of job development and training in so-called economically disadvantaged areas.

Specifically, it will attempt to make capital and management assistance available for economic development in these areas . . . assure that training is available for people so jobs may be filled adequately . . . make available tax incentives for business to hire the disadvantaged . . . provide incentive for financial institutions to participate in the program through placement of state surplus money in banks . . . and tighten up laws against discrimination in apprenticeship programs.

And it also creates the Department of Human Resources Development, expected to handle the full range of services necessary to employment. It would include a separate division to develop and supervise new methods of reaching and effectively dealing with problems of the hard-core unemployed. This measure, AB 1463, is the principal bill in the package.

Other bills in the series are:

AB 109, which would set up a California Job Development Corporation to provide loans for business development in poverty areas.

AB 1046, which would establish a pilot program to encourage small business to locate in ghetto neighborhoods. Technical assistance would be provided in disadvantaged urban areas.

AB 1777, which would encourage banks to take part in programs to provide loans for business development under the job development corporation. It allows the state's pooled money investment board to deposit in banks which make high risk loans in urban poverty areas.

AB 1966, which would provide tax incentives for firms placing hard-core unemployed in full-time jobs.

AB 1464, which would give minorities a greater representation in apprentice training programs.

This far-reaching program quite possibly could be one of the outstanding achievements of our 1968 Legislature. As I have pointed out before, there is a critical need for action now in providing work for those who have extreme difficulty in finding jobs.

In California, our unemployment rate exceeds 30 per cent in some sections, and it is probably worse than it was during the depression period of the 1930's. While the national jobless average is 3.6 per cent, the current statewide average is higher at 4.6 per cent.

Only time will prove the effectiveness of this program, but giving it a real opportunity to work is better than having no program at all.

Foam Rubber Mattresses Keep Sleepers Cool

NEW YORK (UPI) — Latex foam rubber mattresses and pillows have a built-in cooling system that keeps them fresh and comfortable, even during hot weather, the Latex Foam Rubber Council reports.

The foam rubber is composed of millions of tiny interconnected air cells that inhale clean, cool air every time the user moves and flexes the foam rubber. Non-porous rubber articles, such as rubber sheets or raincoats, are apt to be hot because they prevent the escape of heat and moisture. The natural ventilation system of latex foam prevents this heat build up.

Mrs. Jaeger is a graduate of Pomona College. She taught in high schools and elementary schools for 20 years, and has studied water color with Milford Zornes, Claremont painter.

The artist is the wife

Mrs. Jaeger's show follows a stitchery display last month by Mrs. Gwendolyn G. Roberts of Pomona. Mrs. Roberts' exhibit is now at the Chamber of Commerce Office, 146 East Third Street, Pomona.
